1. Unless pre-arranged through the office, tests must be taken during scheduled times only.
2. Students must attend all periods during the testing week.
3. Class rolls will be taken during all classes regardless if a test is given or not.
The attendance policy for 10 days absences will still be in effect.
4. Only a doctors statement will excuse a student from taking a semester test.
5. Students must have parental permission to check out.
6. All truancy rules for skipping class will be strictly enforced.
7. Students are not allowed to leave class during testing to check out.
8. Students who are exempt from all tests will be allowed to leave at 3:10 Friday, May 18
9. Absences during testing week will count double against exemption.
10. Students who are not exempt and miss their review period during testing week will be required to stay until 3:05 the last three testing days of school.
